ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE, 2004 – PRESENT (2019)

DR. JASON CAMLOT CURRICULUM VITAE

ASSOCIATE DEAN, FACULTY AFFAIRS, 1 September 2013 – 30 June 2019

During my tenure in this position I had occasion to engage in most activities that fall within the purview of my official duties, and have gained a strong understanding of the Faculty's operations as a whole.

Broadly, my administrative responsibilities included:

- Advising the Dean on all CUFA, CUPFA and TRAC-related issues, and to be in regular communication with Chairs around these issues
- Advising the Dean about grievance and appeal hearings and participating in these hearings developing, monitoring and refining policy pertaining to faculty workload (and workload remissions)
- Monitoring and overseeing course allocations
- Advising and assisting departments in the development and implementation of performance, contract renewal and tenure criteria, and faculty mentoring and development activities.

I helped oversee the hiring process of all new full time faculty.

I reviewed and recommended sabbatical applications of all eligible faculty.

I oversaw the processes and documentation management of all Full Time hires in the Faculty, including the composition of recommendations.

I oversaw the work of the Document Management Coordinator for the Faculty, develop reports for the Dean and all Associate Deans using FRIS and other databases, and articulate recommendations for further development of our university data systems.

I organized faculty orientation sessions and coordinate the annual Dean's awards.

I liaised regularly between department Chairs and the Dean on matters pertaining to faculty management issues, crises, and new departmental initiatives.

I served as Acting Dean upon the present Dean's request.

Portfolio initiatives included:

- surveying faculty mentoring and development activities with the aim of producing an FAS Faculty Development information document (survey conducted, report in progress)
- overseeing the drafting of updated performance criteria documents in each unit of the Faculty (23 of 25 reports submitted, 2 in progress)
- reviewing the purpose and use of workload remissions across the Faculty with the aim of making detailed recommendations concerning the management of faculty workload, going forward (reviewed and finalized 517 workload letters in 2014, and 516 in 2016, with workload policy recommendations in the process of being implemented)
- reviewing and producing policy documents on procedures for the evaluation of sabbatical applications
- updating and rejuvenating the Faculty Dean's Awards program and New Faculty Orientation activities (saw an exponential increase in submissions for 2014, from 4 to 19)

DR. JASON CAMLOT CURRICULUM VITAE

- overseeing the upgrade of Documentum, the Faculty's document archive and data management system, and developing a plan for best practices in the use of the Documentum system within Faculty administration (upgrade of the system is now complete and scanning towards completely up to date content will be completed by September 2014)

In addition to these portfolio-specific tasks and initiatives, as an Associate Dean I was directly engaged in the formulation of all aspects of the Faculty's strategic planning and consulted on or informed about most aspects of its operations.

Adjacent work within the Dean's Office:

In Fall 2013 I shared duties of the Associate Dean, Facilities Management and oversaw three significant facilities development projects, the renovation and installation of the Richler Reading Rooms, the selection and planning for the Montreal Institute of Genocide Studies relocation, and planning for the move of the Department of Education.

In Fall 2014 I shared duties of the Associate Dean, Research and Graduate Studies by serving as Chair of the Faculty Research Committee for internal grants competitions and for the CRC LOI competition.

I work closely with fellow Associate Deans of Student Academic Affairs, Research and Graduate Studies, Curriculum, Facilities Management, the Directors of Finance and the Director of Advancement on a wide array of initiatives.

I work closely with the Vice-Provost Faculty Relations, Vice Provost Teaching and Learning, Vice President Research and Graduate Studies, the Deputy Provost and the Provost on specific initiatives.

CHAIR, DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH, June 2008-May 2012

My four-year tenure as Chair of the Department of English at Concordia University represented substantial and broadly applicable training in academic administration.

The department consists of 24 Tenured or Tenure Track Faculty members, 11 ETA/LTAs, 30+ Part Time instructors, four staff members and over 1300 program students.

Key responsibilities and activities:

- Oversaw and managed all departmental operations and department budget
- Met regularly with students and faculty members to address concerns, complaints and proposals
- Chaired monthly department meetings
- Performed all departmental course scheduling (full time and part time)
- Managed full time faculty workload matters, and sabbatical and leave requests
- Responded regularly with directions to reports from the Graduate Program Director, Undergraduate Advisor, Coordinator of Creative Writing, Coordinator of Composition and Professional Writing, Chair of the Curriculum, Speakers and Student Liaison committees, and presidents of the Student Associate of Graduates in English (SAGE) and the undergraduate Concordia Association of Students in English (CASE), as well as four department staff members
- Chaired Part-Time Hiring Committee and oversaw all PT hiring
- Chaired Department Personnel Committee and Department Tenure Committee

DR. JASON CAMLOT CURRICULUM VITAE

- Performed annual review of all probationary faculty and led bi-annual review of all tenured and ETA faculty

Selected initiatives:

- Recruited and hired two new tenure track and 10 new LTA faculty members, and oversaw four promotions to tenure and two hires with tenure during a four year period
- Continued development and submission of proposal for Ph.D. program in English (now approved by all university bodies including Senate)
- Revised M.A. in English by introducing one-year research project program option and eliminating two-year comprehensive exam option
- Introduced protocols for use of individual research funding in graduate recruitment
- Introduced new departmental student advising protocols
- Helped develop and implemented new undergraduate courses in The Graphic Novel and Videogames and/as Literature
- Established Composition Committee and oversaw the redesign of English Composition (writing) curriculum in response to the suspension of the University Writing Test
- Successfully nominated three faculty members for Faculty Dean's Awards (two for teaching one for research)
- Successfully nominated one Convocation Valedictorian from English
- Developed "Small Class Experience" curricular model for ENGL 270-The Creative Process (based on available Faculty funding)
- Oversaw and submitted revised Department of English Performance, Promotion and Tenure Criteria Document
- Oversaw the development and implementation, in collaboration with Associate Dean of Faculty Affairs, of the new Department of English Faculty Workload policy
- Secured the addition of one ETA position in the department
- Secured CURC for one faculty member in the department
- Led development and submission of successful CRC Poetics LOI (search was delayed and is underway this academic year)
- Oversaw the organization of the international Summer Literary Seminars writing program at Concordia for two years (with the aid of Faculty funding)
- Negotiated establishment of Quebec Writers Federation (QWF) "Concordia University First Book Prize"
- Developed white paper and participated in the negotiation and implementation of the Mordecai Richler Reading Room at Concordia University

GRADUATE PROGRAM DIRECTOR, DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH, June 2004-May 2006

As GPD of the Department of English I administered two graduate M.A. programs (English, Creative Writing) with an average annual enrolment of approximately 110 graduate students and chaired a Graduate Committee of five faculty members. I was very active in activities pertaining to the development of grant writing skills and professionalization for graduate students, and initiated an aggressive "call all accepted applicants" approach to recruitment.

Key responsibilities and activities:

DR. JASON CAMLOT CURRICULUM VITAE

- Oversaw graduate admissions, led the ranking and distribution of graduate awards and led recruitment initiatives each year
- Oversaw the annual selection of graduate seminar offerings
- Organized and oversaw graduate orientation activities
- Organized and oversaw graduate grant writing and professionalization workshops
- Coordinated all graduate thesis defenses
- Oversaw all comprehensive exam reading lists and composed and assessed all General Comprehensive Exams
- Composed and assessed all language requirement translation exams
- Initiated and oversaw the digitization of all English Department M.A. Theses (several years in advance of the University Library initiative to digitize university theses)

DR. JASON CAMLOT CURRICULUM VITAE

- University Collective Bargaining Team for CUFA Negotiations, Sept 2014-November 2015 – At the Provost’s request, I joined the University Administration’s team for this round of collective bargaining with the Concordia University Faculty Association (the full-time faculty union). As a member of this seven-person team, I participated in the negotiation process, at all negotiation preparation meetings, as well as in negotiations at the table. The Collective Agreement has since been ratified by CUFA membership and the signing ceremony was held in November 2015.
- Future of Learning and Experiential Learning Strategic Working Group (Co-Chair), December 2015-May 2015—I co-chaired (with the Director of the Centre of Teaching and Learning) this committee of faculty and students with the mandate to develop a strategy report on Teaching and Learning to be integrated into Concordia’s 2015 Strategic Directions document. We met with numerous constituencies and experts, collated the data and formulated our recommendations. On April 6th I completed the 10-page report summarizing the recommendations of the committee and submitted it to the President and the Vice-Provost of Teaching and Learning.
- Strategic Directions Advisory Committee, Sept 2014-May 2015 – This committee, struck by the President, brought together members of the APPC, Senate Steering Committee and the Office of the Vice-President, Research and Graduate Studies, to lead a year-long exercise in strategic planning with the aim of delivering a Strategic Directions document for approval at Senate in 2015.
- University Collective Bargaining Advisory Team, for CUPFA Negotiations, April 2015-Ongoing – At the request of the Vice-Provost Faculty Relations I have joined the advisory committee for the University Administration’s team to negotiate the next Collective Agreement with the Concordia University Part-Time Faculty Association. I participate in monthly negotiation preparation meetings.
- Search Committee for Associate University Librarian, Collection Services, January-June 2015. This inter-faculty committee successfully recruited and recommended an external candidate for this important position.
- Academic Planning and Priorities Committee, Sept 2013-Ongoing
This committee, chaired by the Provost, discusses and proposes high-level academic initiatives and strategies, for consideration by the Senate.
- Richler Reading Room project, September 2012-Ongoing – Worked with President, Dean and Concordia Advancement Office in the successful coordination of a major gift from the Mordecai Richler estate. Oversaw team of 10 students in the cataloguing of the gifted materials. Oversaw, as an acting FAS Associate Dean, Facilities Management, of the planning and renovation of the Richler Reading Room space in the Library Building. Installed donated collection in new space. Continue to work on processing, development and fundraising around this new space at Concordia.
- Chair Search Committees (as Chair). Chaired Search committees for search and appointment of Unit Heads in the Departments of Economics; Education; Classics, Modern Languages and Linguistics; Liberal Arts College; Etudes Françaises; Simone de Beauvoir Institute; School of Canadian Irish Studies; Loyola College of Sustainability and Diversity; History; 2013-Ongoing.
- VP Research and Graduate Studies Search Committee, Sept. 2011-June 2012
- University Writing and Communication Committee (Chair), Sept. 2011-May 2012 – Chaired committee, at the request of the Vice-Provost Teaching and Learning, to survey and develop a report upon extant writing and communication activities across all faculties and departments in the university. Completed survey and presented report with recommendations to Academic Cabinet.
- Academic Planning and Priorities Committee, Sept. 2010-May 2012 – Was an active member of APPC during period of the APPC’s review of recommendations from the commissioned External Governance Review Committee, and the development of these into revised university governance articles for the Senate and BoG’s approval.
